

28 June 1984

CIA SHAKE-UP

DANCY: A shake-up at the CIA, as four top officials are transferred to new jobs. The CIA is portraying the move as routine, but it involves the head of clandestine operations and the agency's chief lobbyist, and many on Capitol Hill believe the transfers are because of eroding support in Congress for the administration's Central American policy.